To Whomsoever it may concern

Madhu is a fantastic realtor who helped us buy our first home in Goleta. She was very patient with us and was always available and ready to go out of her way and outside of work hours to communicate with us about several properties. She is very responsive and flexible and kept us aware of the process and the surroundings/area.

She is very hard working for her buyers and she will work through any challenge that is presented and find a solution. We also heard positive comments about her from other realtors who told us that we were "in good hands" with a good realtor.

We are very happy with our single family home and had it not been for the dedication of our agent, I don't think we would be in a great place as we are now. I would happily recommend Madhu to first time and veteran home buyers as she will pull-through for her clients.

Thank you Madhu for all that you did.

With best regards,
