To whom it may concern,

We chose Madhu as our agent when purchasing a home based on personal recommendations. She surpassed all expectations. She fought for us every inch of the way and we always felt that she had our needs in her best interest.

We not only got the house we wanted but received the price point we felt we deserved. There wasn't a single detail that was missed and she even pointed out unknown areas that were advantageous to us!

I would recommend Madhu to anyone looking to purchase a home.

Thanks,

Megha Derchak
